

EBCLC Executive Director Named “Super Lawyer” for Third Consecutive Year

July 28, 2006, San Francisco, CA – EBCLC Executive Director Jeff Selbin was one of four legal services lawyers in Northern California named a 2006 "Super Lawyer" by Law & Politics and the publishers of San Francisco Magazine. He is the only legal services lawyer in northern California to be so named for three consecutive years

Awardees were selected based on a survey of 47,000 attorneys in Northern California followed by review of a blue ribbon panel.

According to Jeff, “the super lawyers are the talented and tireless attorneys at EBCLC who train and supervise the next generation of law students committed to social justice while serving thousands of low-income clients each year. This recognition belongs to our staff and to the broader legal services community.”
