

Community Economic Justice Legal Clinic

I have an idea for a business... how do I start or make it official?

Am I running my business, nonprofit or cooperative legally?

I'm renting a space for my small business and there is problem with my commercial lease. What do I do?

Sign up today for a FREE one-on-one consultation with an attorney. We can answer questions and provide advice on any of the following matters:

- Commercial lease questions
- Starting a new business, nonprofit, or cooperative (legal entity formation)
- Business licenses and permitting
- Nonprofit tax-exemption
- Converting a business to a cooperative
- Business, nonprofit, or cooperative governance
- Employment law

First Tuesday of each month

5:00 PM to 7:00 PM

Via online video conference (Zoom)

Sign-up here: <https://forms.gle/HRwHhkQLjipy32P5A>

The Community Economic Justice clinic (CEJ) is a program of the East Bay Community Law Center. CEJ's mission is to promote the equitable development of a people-oriented economy through the advancement of community and cooperative ownership of businesses and housing in low-income communities and communities of color.